5th Pallottine Sweepstakes

Victim of Malnutrition
in Our Missions

You have 5 chances to Win

No one has your numbers

112 PRIZES

Prize Award Date June 1, 1971

Today May Be

YOUR LUCKY DAY.... Enclosed are your five tickets...5 chances to win...
You may have already won one or more of the 112 prizes.

Why a Sweepstakes???

Simply to call attention in a dramatic way to the needs of the poor, hungry and sick children and adults in the Pallottine Missions of Brazil, India, Tanzania (Africa) and Australia.

I snapped the above picture on my trip to our Missions in India.... The child was a victim of malnutrition.... Notice the arms and legs.... Sad, isn't it?

But malnutrition does more than cripple normal body growth... It stunts mental development.... Painful tragedies of victims of malnutrition.

In India I saw thousands of children on a starvation diet and sleeping on the streets and roads.... I saw children who, because of brain damage from malnutrition, could not absorb an education... I saw children whose daily diet was a handful of rice.

Our Missionaries are penetrating the jungle slums with food, medicines and clothing... They are helping thousands of children in Brazil, India, Tanzania and Australia... They have self-help programs for young people to free them from ~~the patterns of poverty that trapped their fathers and forefathers....~~ Please help us carry on this work of mercy.

With your help... the present can become bearable... the future bright for the poor, hungry and sick children in our Missions around the world.

Mail us your contribution today... $3 will buy vitamins for 25 children... $5 will feed a family for a month... $10 may keep a father and mother alive, so they can care for their own children.

A person with a heart full of love has always something to give... Just as loving never empties the heart... giving never empties the purse... Our children will gladly pray for your health and happiness in appreciation for your generosity.

*P.S. Please Help!
Thank you,*

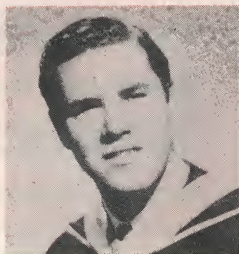

Cordially,
G. J. Carcich

Help these children

with your contributions. They are but a sample of thousands of children in the Pallottine Missions who are either starving, sick or naked. Those with bloated bellies have stomachs full of worms . . . Those with dirty faces tell you they eat dirt to satisfy the worms . . . Very few smile because malnutrition, disease and lack of clothes is no fun . . . The Pallottine Missionaries will convert your contributions into food, vitamins, medicines and clothes. They live among the poor in their Missions, speak their language and love them. They practice the Bible teaching and believe that they are their brothers' keeper.

Send Your Contribution Today

The Pallottine Missionaries are listed in the directory of the Technical Assistance Information Clearing House (TAICH) which is operated by the American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Service, Inc. under contract with the U. S. Agency for International Development.

As a religious, non-profit organization, the Pallottine Missionaries — according to the U.S. Treasury Department Internal Revenue Service — are entitled to exemption from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101 (6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, which corresponds to section 501(c)(3) of the 1954 Code. Accordingly, bequests, legacies, transfers or gifts to the Pallottine Missionaries are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes as provided in sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.
